FOREWORD

"We have tomorrow bright before us like a flame: Yesterday a night gone thing, a sundown name, and at dawn today
Broad arch above the road we came, we march."

In the assembling of these facts for the publication of this YELLOW JACKET, we have considered the above quotation. We have tried to the best of our ability to enclose within this book our best and most enjoyable experiences.

We hope that during the remaining years that this book will remain one of your dearest possessions; then we can say our goal had been achieved.

REFLECTIONS

CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1954, we the senior class of 1957-58, entered our freshman year at Carver Consolidated School. We were represented by Barbara Eaton as President; Junita Millner, Secretary; and Gloria Dark, Treasurer. Although we were excited and confused about our High School future, this did not hinder us in our athletic or social activities. Athletically, Leroy Little, Vance, Little, Clarence Chambers, and Genell Brooks proved their amazing abilities in football and basketball.

Blondie Jones was the only representative from the Freshman class initiated into the Thespian Society.

As each new year came in, new ideas were forming in our young minds. As Sophomores, Barbara Eaton, Deanna Hunter, Forestine Miller, John Damon, Rainey Chandler, Juanita Carter, Barbara Welch and William Phillips became interested in Dramatics, so much, that they soon became Thespians. They presented a magnificent play entitled, "Seventeenth Summer", a light hearted comedy definitely enjoyed by all.

Vera Joyce proved her talent by excelling in music which helped her in winning the Omega Talent Hunt in Reidsville, North Carolina.

Among the sports activities in our Sophomore year, Genell Brooks and Clarence Chambers were members of our football team which won the District Championship Title.

Upon entering our Junior year, little thought was given to anything but the Junior-Senior Prom. It was a big success, thanks to our advisors, Mrs. A. M. Smith, Mr. E. E. Balsley, Miss E. A. Lloyd and Mr. D. L. Lash.

Scholastically, Barbara Eaton was often "Champ" on the honor roll. Deanna Hunter was elected President of the Student Council and Gloria Dark, Editor of the Carver Hi-Lite. Eight members of our class were initiated into the Crown and Scepter Club, they were: Vera Joyce, Rose Preston, Carolyn Haith, Blondie Jones, Deanna Hunter, Barbara Eaton, James Hart and Charlie Oliver.

Musically, Delarion Carr, James Bowman, Webster Connor and other able members proved their love for music by participating daily in the band. Barbara West, Vance Little, Jo Ann Brown, Arnella Byrd, and Ira Mackey joined the Glee Club. Vera Joyce also in the Glee Club, again won the Omega Talent Hunt. Annette Hairston and Wanda Shore were majorettes for Carver.

Donna Miller was crowned "Miss Carver High" and Carolyn Haith was an attendant.

Having seen how successful and exciting our Junior year had been, we were extremely anxious to return as Seniors the following year.

As Seniors, Graduation, Scholarships, College and the like seemed the main topic for discussion among us. Many of us were honored to be able to take standardized tests in preparation for college.

Among the social and athletic highlights of the school year, the Senior Class won the "Miss Carver of 1957" contest. Phyllis Warren was crowned "Miss Carver of 1957" and Gwendolyn Jones and Dorothy King both seniors, were her attendants. The festivity was held during the half-time ceremony of the Homecoming Football Game.

Due to a disquantity of words, we cannot tell of the many happy and memorable experiences we have enjoyed here.

As a Graduating Class, we are deeply indebted to our principal Mr. Martin, Instructors, and friends for their loyal efforts to help us reach and maintain this point in life. We now realize that accepting responsibilities, possessing perseverance to continue in life and the grasp for knowledge of the highest things known to man are qualities that must be used to their fullest extend to have a life of happiness and success. To those responsible, who shared our tears and joys, we the Senior Class of 1958, wish to thank you for everything. To "Our School" we say "Thanks"; we shall never forget you.

CLASS PROPHECY

Time: 1968

Place: Around the World

The Senior Class of 1958 has proved to be one of the most successful to be graduated from Carver, and you will soon know what I mean.

As I boarded a Pan-American Cruiser, on my way to fill another position as Elementary Supervisor of well known school in Washington, D.C., I decided to stop along the way to see and meet again some of my old classmates.

My first stop was in New York, where I met CLARENCE CHAMBERS, FLETCHER HARRIS and GARLAND WALLACE, now well known scientists working on the U.S. "Sputnik". They told me that VERA JOYCE is now a therapist at a well known hospital and one of her co-workers is RAINEY CHANDLER, and X-Ray Technician.

When I returned to the Airport, I learned that we were to change planes. As I boarded the plane, I surprised to meet FRANCIS DUNN standing at the door, acting her part as Airline hostess. She told me that the plane was piloted by JAMES HART and CHARLIE DOUGLAS.

Our next stop was in Chicago. I had wired one of my best friends, BARBARA EATON, who is a Chemical Engineer at the Western Electric Company, that I was coming and she met me at the Airport. Barbara informed that JUANITA CARTER, CAROLYN HAITH, ROSE PRESTON and JACQUELINE McCOY are her new associates at the plant.

While in Chicago, I attended a baseball game between Washington and Chicago. I was very pleased to see GENE SPRINKLE and NATHANIEL NORWOOD as members of the Chicago Cubs. During this time I noticed the name on one of the ambulances on hand at the game. It read "Jarrett and Carter Funeral Services". I soon learned that this business belonged to CARL JARRETT and DONALD CARTER, who have a great business as morticians. The attendants were Carl and Donald's old friends in high school, GEORGE ROBINSON, JAMES WHISONANT and WILLIAM VALENTINE.

After leaving the game, Barbara persuaded me to visit the hospital. I didn't know why, but I soon found out. When we arrived I was greeted by none other than FELICIA WYNECOFF, now head nurse at the hospital. I also saw PHYLLIS WARREN, ANNIE CARTER, ARNELLA BYRD, IRA MACKAY, BARBARA WEST, ODESTA HAUSER, LOUISE SPEAS, HELEN HAIRSTON and REBECCA McCULLOUGH who are nurses there. We met the head doctors. I was surprised to learn that they were SHIRLEY WARREN, EUGENE WEEKS, THEODORE TYNER and FLOYD GREENE.

Bidding Barbara goodbye, I set forth on my journey. I was met on the plane by GLORIA DARK, a Home Economist at Yale University. Gloria told me that BARBARA WELCH, DELARION CARR, JEAN LATTEN, VERDELL REID, GAIL JONES, BARBARA CONRAD and ANNA REID are all instructors at the leading high school there. She also informed us that GWENDOLY JONES is now soloist with the Metropolitan Opera, and WANDA SHORE is an advisor with Cortez Peters Business School. With Wanda and DONNA MILLER, MAXINE BRAME, BETTY MASSEY, LORETTA GLENN and JOANNE BROWN. HOWARD ALEXANDER, CHARLIE OLIVER, PHILLIP MITCHELL and HUBERT LASH are important Engineers in Washington also.

Conversing further with Gloria, I learned that WILLIAM PHILLIPS is now an Electrician at Duke Power Company in Winston-Salem. Also in the Twin City are EDWIN LASH, ROGER BAILEY and MATTHEW LATTEN, who are profitable Electrical Engineers. JUANITA MILLNER is an advisor at Russell's Commercial School, and working with her are: RUBENA BRABHAM, CAROLYN LASH, DOROTHY KING, MARLENE MILLER, HELEN HAIRSTON, MATTIE GOODE, FORESTINE MILLER and BETTY MILLER.

GENELL BROOKS is coaching the N.C. Blue Devils, assisted by LEROY LITTLE. JAMES BOWMAN is now an important figure in the Real Estate Business. His associates are some of our own classmates. They are: BERNARD PORTER, JOHN BLACKBURN, ROBERT THOMAS and OTHELLO MATTHEWS.

Arriving in Washington, D.C. I was met by DEANNA HUNTER, a very famous Electrical Engineer, and my roommate for the next few years.

HENRY WATSON, WEBSTER CONNOR, THOMAS SMITH and naturally VANCE LITTLE are members of the Washington Redskins' football team.

Oh, yes, I almost forgot to tell you, but do you know that back at Carver, TREVA PHILLIPS, JACQUELINE PATTON, MARY CORRELL, BARBARA WELCH, NATHANIEL MITCHELL, and JOHNNY GARLINGTON are head of the D.O. Department. Also the new instructors there are BETTY GARDNER, CAROLYN JONES and MARY LEDBETTER.

Now that you've read our prophecy, can't you see why our class is the most successful ever to graduate from Carver?

That's US: The Class of '58

LAST WILL and TESTAMENT

In the course of our high school days, naturally, we have acquired various and valuable possessions, among them bring a vast store of knowledge that will help us through our lives. We played, we love, we laughed
Together we did stand
Dear Carver School, our esteem
You have right in your hand.

Through you we have reached for higher things
We have learned our lessons true
By honest effort and without strife
We have honored the gold and blue.

We shall remember as we onward go
The things we have been taught
By the Faculty and Administration
Who, by us, and for us fought.

So we leave our Carver School
Which has helped us on the way
We shall always remember and laugh and rejoice
When we return for Alumni Day.

Class Song (In Tune of "Silhouettes")

Carver High

How we'll miss you Carver Hi,
Oh so much,
For our years have been so dear
Oh so dear,
Oh what fun we've had here with laughter and tears,
Oh what a time, a lovely time.
Carver, Carver, Carver, Carver, Carver, Carver Hi.

Now the time has come for us,
For us to leave,
But you know we've done our deed,
And we must,
But our love will stay within,
Within these walls.
Oh what a school, a school you are.
Carver, Carver, Carver, Carver, Carver, Carver Hi.

Carver you will always be,
In our dreams,
Seems as tho we can't forget,
For we always will claim,
Oh what a name dear Carver Hi.
Carver, Carver, Carver, Carver, Carver, Carver Hi.

More troubles came along, until finally he checked his finances and found he was down to his last quarter. So he decided to use it to drown his sorrow—though with the price they charge at most taverns today, twenty-five cents won't even get your feet wet, but the fellow walked into a bar went to the rail, ordered a beer and tossed out his last two bits. Just then the bartender's pet monkey layed down picked up the quarter, and swallowed it. The fellow raised a fuss, but the bartender disclaimed all responsibilities for the monkey's action, and refused to make good the money. There was nothing left for the poor guy to do but to leave the joint, still thirsty. As he got to the door he came to the monkey. The guy hauled off, hit the critter in the stomach, and the monkey coughed up four dollars and seventy-five cents.
